About the Act:

The Right to Information Act, 2005 enables a citizen to access information which is held by a public authority or is under the control of public authority. The Act legitimizes citizens' right to information and the duty of the government to provide it. It also establishes that the state apparatus must be materially equipped to provide that information, and that access to information must be inexpensive. Most importantly it contains penalties' provision for non-compliance and also provides for an independent appeal's procedure in case of disputes.

PIO and Appellate Authority:

EIL has designated Mr S S Fonia, Head (Legal) and Mr P.K. Rastogi, Executive Director (P&A) as Public Information Officer (PIO), and Appellate Authority respectively vide office order dated July 31, 2009 and Pers./HO/186 dated January 1, 2009 respectively.

Applications:

Any person seeking information should file an application with the PIO on plain paper in writing or electronic form and should be in English, Hindi or official language of the area where the application is filed. The applicant is not required to either give any reason for requesting the information or any personal detail, except those required to contact the applicant.

Applications may be sent through post or handed over personally at EIL's Receipt Counter at EI Annexe, Ground Floor located outside the security pass system.

No gate pass is required for submission of applications

Fee:

As per the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005 , processing fee of Rs.10/- (Rupees Ten only) preferably via demand draft in favour of Engineers India Ltd, payable at New Delhi should accompany the application.
